CUMBERLAND WEDDING.

Downings Methodist Church Miss Susie Byerley Flippen the Bride of James Lee Carter.

afternoon at 4 o clock, when Miss Sunde Byerley Lippen became the bride of Mr. James Lie Carter, a young business man of this county, the Rev. Dr. Duvis performing the ceremony. The bride entered with and was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. G. Kent Fringen.

Mr. Carter had as best man his brother, Mr. George Carter. The bridst purty were presented by the following usbers: Messra Brazest Hobson, Thomas Goodman, Herbert Goodman and Mr. Booker. The little Bower girls Misses Myra De Herrey and Malet Goodman and Prances Goodman, daintily attired in white, carried bunches of white chrysanthemums. The brids were an exquisite crincess gown of white crope over white silk, and carried a bunch of feathery white chrysanthemums.

The wedding march, from Mendelssionthemums, may played by Miss Eva Byerley, a coursin of the bride.

The church decorations were beautifully carried out in white and green, with great bunches of autumn red. The chantel was banded in green, with white chrysanthemums in the foreground, this being brillianity lighted by many candelabra and soft shaded lamps.

Mr. and Mrs. Carter will make their flowe in this county.

A Dangerous Plea.

The Richmond Times-Dispatch thinks that Havana soldier sentended to jail for writing bad poetry might enter a pica that he doesn't write any worse poetry than Alfred Austin. However, if he tailed to sustain his plea, he would probably he shot.—Washington Herald.
